

Green Recovery: The Built Environment

Thursday 11th February 2020 | Online

SHARE

10.00 Chair's Introduction

10.10 Keynote: A Government Update: A Green Recovery for the Built Environment Sector

- Transitioning to a Post-COVID Green Economy & what it means for the sector
- Receive an up-to-date brief on Government plans to 'build back better' & review other forthcoming changes
- Road to net zero: how does the Housing & Planning sector need to change?

10.40 Breakout Sessions: On the Ground & in the Air: Practice & Long-term Strategy for Green Recovery

Track A: Practice in the New Normal: What Change Can you Enact Now?

- Review best practice case studies of sector leading green technologies and projects
- Not waiting for legislative change: Proactive steps practitioners can take before the transition

Track B: Future Proofing: Developing a Long-term Strategy for Green Recovery

- Making an effective business case that aligns with organisational goals
- Greening Decision Making: Effectively influencing at the top level to act 'Green'
- Successfully embedding the sustainability mindset into the business agenda and across operations

11.20 ~ Break ~

11.50 PLENARY: A Global Green Built Environment Sector

- Review the global picture of how the built environment sector is levelling up towards a sustainable future
- Where does the U.K. fit in?: The Global Green Recovery Movement and the U.K. built environments place within that

12.30 ~ Lunch ~

13.30 PLENARY: Green Built Environment Good Practice

- Review Innovative Approaches that achieve a reduction in Carbon Dioxide Emissions and improve Energy Efficiency
- Ensure that quality is not the enemy of supply: streamline housing delivery targets with sustainable development goals
- Understand effective measures to “Carbon Proof”

14.00 BREAKOUT SESSIONS: Greening Planning & Influencing effectively

TRACK A: Greening Planning: Biodiversity and Environmental Net Gain policies

- Review Biodiversity and Environmental Net gain & what they mean for future development
- The Enhanced Environment Bill and the primary legislation biodiversity net gains will be tied to
- Duty into Practice: What will the Biodiversity Net Gain Duty mean in Practice?

TRACK B: Future proofing: Developing a long-term strategy for green recovery

- Review best practice in which parliamentary procedure was influenced effectively by an organisation for Green ends
- Effectively Influencing policy & parliamentary procedure for Green benefits
- Aligning your strategy effectively with Government goals

14.30 CLOSING KEYNOTE: Together Towards a Sustainable Future

- Creating a more joined-up approach to tackling climate change
- Building effective partnerships & working effectively across Central & local Government, business & other actors
- Taking sustainability-focused approaches that maximise value to all involved

15.00 ~ End of day ~

All speakers and the agenda are subject to change without notice.

Register Now

Visit Website

ORGANISED BY DODDS GROUP PLC

For more information, please contact:

Customer.Services@thehousebriefing.com

Telephone: 020 7593 5657

SHARE

